We are told, that ſubjects have in Scotland many teſtimonies of the greater ſpirit of freedom in its laws, than we have in England; for inſtance, no man can be arreſted for debt in the firſt inſtance; no criminal can be loaded with irons until he is convicted; no inflexible creditor can lock up an induſtrious member of the State for life, for upon the debtors petition for relief upon his ceſſio bonorum, the Lords of Seſſion can, and always do grant it.

The agreement of the French Court with the Genoeſe for the Iſland of Corſica is no longer a ſecret. Thanks to Mr. Boſwell, we are now well acquainted with the great importance of an Iſland, in which are many of the beſt harbours in the Mediterranean that produce plenty of the beſt timber for ſhip building, and in which are no leſs than 40,000 fighting men. " The actual Parliament of Rennes has paſſed a reſolution, to beſeech the King to recall all the members of the ancient Parliament, becauſe that juſtice could not be adminiſtered in the Province of Brittanny for want of a ſufficient number of Judges, but it is ſaid that his Majeſty greatly diſapproves this reſolution, and has anſwered that he will abſolutely make no alteration in his edict for the reduction of that parliament.

The Court ſat early upon the occaſion, when after many learned arguments on both ſides, the outlawry was reverſed. Mr. Wilkes withdrew from Court in the moſt private and ſilent manner imaginable, through the Court of Requeſts, and ſo down to Parliament Stairs, where he went on board a boat, and croſſed the River, and was there met by a carriage, which carried him in a moſt peaceable manner to his former apartments in the King's-Bench Priſon, St. George's Fields.*

JUNE 10. Yeſterday there was a great Court, and Drawing Room at St. James's, and afterwards there was a Privy Council, at which the Lord Chancellor, and the Great Officers of State aſſiſted, which did not break up till near 4 o'clock, after which their Majeſties returned to Richmond.

Wedneſday morning at eight, Mr. Wilkes was brought from the priſon of the King's-Bench to the Court. The Judges came about nine. It had been mentioned the laſt Term, that a new argument was deſired, and that new ground might be taken for the reverſal of the outlawry. At the opening of the Court, Mr. Wilkes made a ſhort ſpeech, that he was perfectly ſatisfied with the ſtate of the argument, as it was left by Mr. Serjeant Glynn, that he did not mean to quit the firm and ſolid ground on which it reſted, and was perſuaded, from the juſtice of the Court, that his outlawry muſt be reverſed. The Attorney-General in the ſupport of the outlawry entered upon a very long argument, to which no one of Mr. Wilkes's Council replied. The Judges afterwards delivered their opinions very fully and were unanimous, that the outlawry was illegal, and muſt be reverſed. Their Lordſhips differed as to their reaſons, but all concurred in the reverſal, and the irregularity of the proceedings.

The Attorney-General then demanded judgment on the two writs. Mr. Wilkes deſired to avail himſelf of ſeveral points in arreſt of judgment. He ſaid, that when he had the honour of appearing before that Court on the 20th of April, he had ſtated the caſe of the alteration of the records at Lord Mansfield's own houſe; that his Lordſhip had replied, but that however his Lordſhip had delivered only his own opinion, and the opinion of one Judge, however diſtinguiſhed for great ability, was not the judgment of the Court, which he deſired, and ſubmitted to, and begged that his Council might argue that, and ſome other points of importance. Several things were afterwards mentioned by the Attorney-General, and by Mr. Wilkes's Council. At laſt the Court fixed next day to debate, whether both verdicts ought not to be ſet aſide on the objections as to the Records having been altered, and that the informations were not filed by the proper officers, but by the Solicitor-General, ſo that it is poſſible that Mr. Wilkes may be diſcharged, or receive Judgment on Tueſday next.

Yeſterday the Court of King's-Bench ordered the rules to be made abſolute againſt the original Publiſher of the North-Briton Extraordinary, No. 4, and againſt another Bookſeller for having ſold that paper. The rule againſt the original Publiſher of the North-Briton, No. 50, was likewiſe ordered to be made abſolute; and a new rule was made for his ſhewing cauſe why an attachment ſhould not iſſue againſt him for the publication of No. 51, of the ſaid paper, which made its appearance on Wedneſday.

An old gentleman, poſſeſſed of a lucrative employment in one of the public Offices, and remarkable for his parſimony, has very lately been taken in for a conſiderable ſum by a gay female ſharper. The Lady is gone to make the tour of France, with a companion more ſuitable to her age and inclination; and has left her forlorn antiquated Inamorato in the greateſt affliction, not for the loſs of his miſtreſs, but of his money. So great is his concern, that it is apprehended he will deſtroy himſelf through vexation of ſpirit.

JUNE 11. We are credibly informed, that Richard Rigby, Eſq; is appointed Joint Pay-maſter of his Majeſty's forces, along with the Hon. Thomas Townſend, jun. in the room of George Cooke, Eſq; deceaſed.

At a very conſiderable meeting of Freeholders, in the County of Middleſex, on Thurſday laſt, they unanimouſly agreed to ſupport the intereſt of Mr. Serjeant Glynn at the enſuing Election, for his ſpirited diſintereſted behaviour, in a certain great popular affair.

The crowd at Weſtminſter-Hall to hear Mr. Wilkes's outlawry argued on Wedneſday, was ſo extremely numerous that they broke down the door of the King's-Bench before the Judges came, and we hear ſeveral people were ſo much bruized that their lives are diſpaired of.

Several council have refuſed to plead for one of the publiſhers lately indicted for a libel, as the defence which he wanted them to make was in their opinion, more calculated to prejudice his intereſt than to ſerve it.

It is ſaid the error on which Mr. Wilkes's outlawry was reverſed, was diſcovered not by his own friends, but by a great lawyer whom the world has numbered among his greateſt enemies.

At one of the moſt conſiderable Taverns in the city, where there was a public dinner laſt week, on the King's birth-day, the company at firſt happened to be exactly 45, however before grace was ſaid, it encreaſed to 50, which is now become another very critical number. But notwithſtanding there appeared ſuch a fortunate coincidence of circumſtances, in favour of popularity, a certain celebrated gentleman who was given as a toaſt, was refuſed by a great majority, and an eminent Magiſtrate for whom it is imagined he entertains no mighty eſteem, was reſpectfully drank by the principal part of the company.

The inhabitants of the new diſcovered iſland, called King George's Land, make their edge tools of poliſhed flint, which, by their ingenuity, are rendered nearly as ſharp as our ſteel, and much more laſting. With inſtruments of this ſort, faſtened to handles by means of ropes made of the inner bark of trees, they cut wood, make canoes, and kill their cattle. Some hatchets of this ſort are now in town.

Yeſterday in the afternoon, the ſhip's Company of the Dolphin man of war, waited on his Majeſty at the Queen's Palace with a petition for being allowed double pay, the ſame as was allowed to the ſaid ſhip's company after their return from their firſt Voyage, but his Majeſty being gone to Richmond, they were obliged to poſtpone the delivery thereof till another opportunity.

Yeſterday the ſhip's company of his Majeſty's ſhip Dolphin, were paid off at Deptford, and this day ſhe will go into dock, in order to be repaired.

The Hudſon's Bay Fleet, conſiſting of the King George, Capt. Fowler, Sea-Horſe, Capt. Horner, and the Prince Rupert, ——, have compleated their ladings in the River, and are daily expected to ſail on their reſpective voyages.

They write from Breſt, that the Monſieur French ſlaving ſhip at Madagaſcar, had been ſurprized by the natives, who plundered the ſhip and cargo, and cut of the whole crew.

We are informed that a lady of faſhion is ſpeedily to ride 100 miles in ten hours, for a wager of five thouſand guineas. The bet is made by her huſband, who has offered to hold five thouſand more, that ſhe eats a leg of lamb and drinks two bottles of claret into the bargain.

An extraordinary trial we are told is ſhortly expected to come on, relative to a promiſſory note for a thouſand pounds, with a man of Quality's name at the bottom; the gentleman acknowledges the name to be his own ſignature, but inſiſts that it was a ſignature which he put to a letter of civility, and ſays that the note has been artfully written over it to defraud him, as he never had a tranſaction of buſineſs with the perſon to whom it is made payable.

A foreign man of faſhion who lately made a brilliant figure in this Metropolis, has lately decamped without beat of drum, and left a number of people in very great ſorrow for his departure.

It is ſaid, that not leſs than 40,000 of No. 51, of a well known title were ſold in two days, and near the ſame number of the preceding No. 50.

Tueſday an electrical machine at Greenwich was found to emit double the quantity of elementary fire, with only half the uſual friction, which ſome Gentlemen experienced during the thunder ſtorm.

On Saturday laſt died ſuddenly Mr. James Steward, of South Benfleet-hall, Eſſex, who made the voyage round the world, with Lord Anſon, in his Majeſty's ſhip Centurion. It is very remarkable, that the meſſenger, who was immediately diſpatched with a letter to the brother of the deceaſed, to acquaint him of the event, met the Rochford ſtage on the road, informed the coachman of the news, and likewiſe the purport of his errand. The coachman obſerved it was a melancholy affair; but what would more augment the diſtreſs of the family was a letter which he had to carry to Benfleet-hall, deſiring them to come, and pay their laſt reſpects to that very brother, who departed much about the ſame time.

A correſpondent ſays, " If a much wiſhed for event ſhould take place, with reſpect to a certain popular gentleman tomorrow, it will certainly tend greatly to reſtore the public tranquility; for as to the inflammatory papers which have lately made a ſort of a bounce, they are ſo ſtupidly as well as malevolently written, that they excite only contempt in the minds of every reader of common underſtanding."

PORTSMOUTH, June 10. Laſt night when the news of Mr. Wilkes's Outlawry being reverſed came to this Town, the greateſt joy was expreſſed by all ranks of people; the bells began ringing, and continued till late at night. Before it was well dark the Town was well illuminated, and bonfires were made. About ten o'clock a gibbet was produced, with a boot hanging on it, which, after being carried through the ſtreets, was committed to the flames, amidſt the repeated ſhouts of Wilkes and Liberty.

CHARLES-TOWN, AUGUST 30.

LAST Tueſday the Snow Francis, Hector M'Allester, Maſter, and the Brig Rebecca, Robert Elder, Maſter, bound to Cape-Fear from Martinico, were ſpoke with off the Bar by Mr. Jacob Waldron, one of our Pilots. Capt. Elder informed him, that the Sloop Threſher, Nathaniel Waldron, Maſter, from Georgia, was the laſt Engliſh Veſſel admitted into that Port.

Laſt Saturday his Majeſty's Ship Fowey, Mark Robinſon, Eſq; Commander, ſailed for New-York, with the Troops mentioned in our laſt; in whom alſo went Paſſenger, Mr. John Forbes, Merchant.

The Brig Union, George Bill, Maſter, from Penſacola for London, put in here on Sunday laſt, for a Supply of Water, &c.

About a Fortnight ago, an Expreſs arrived here from his Honour the Preſident of Virginia to John Stuart, Eſq; Superintendant of Indian Affairs; and we learn, " That " the Superintendant's Deputy, and ſundry Cherokee Head- " men appointed for that Purpoſe, are to meet the Virginia " Commiſſioners on the 10th of November next, at Chiſ- " well's Mines, where the Boundary Line between the " Cherokee hunting Grounds and North-Carolina termi- " nates, in Order there to begin and continue a Line be- " tween the ſaid Grounds and Virginia, in Terms of the " Agreement made with them, by the Superintendant, on " that important Affair. The Virginia Line, which com- " pleats the Weſtern Boundaries of the Provinces in the " Southern Diſtrict, is to end at the Conflux of the Great " Canahwa with the Ohio, where the Line, ſuppoſed to be " ſettled laſt Month by Sir William Johnſon and the Six " Nations, is to begin."

IT cures all Manner of Wounds, if curable; the moſt inveterate Ulcers and Fiſtulas, by injecting into the Canals and Sinews of Ulcers and Fiſtulas, afore-mentioned. In Wounds, you cure by dipping a Pledget of Lint in the Balſam, and bind up the Wound, uniting the Lips of the Wound as Conveniency offers, renewing once a Day, till cured.

It ſcatters all Manner of Swellings, that are fit to be ſcattered; but Abceſs, and ſuch under that Denomination, are often called Biles, muſt come to Supperation when it is drawn, and the corrupted Matter taken off, it quickly heals.

For a Cold, attended with violent Coughing, Inflamation of the Glands, Hoarſeneſs, and exceſſive Force for Reſpiration, Pains in the Breaſt, and even the ſtrongeſt Pleuratick Symptoms, it gives immediate Eaſe, by taking in the Morning faſting, a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, with two or three Tea Spoonfuls of Honey, or for Want of Honey, Sugar.

For violent Falls whereby the internal Parts may be hurt, and a Rexis of the Veſſels, that often bring on a Bleeding at Mouth, Noſe, &c. it ſtops the Blood, and ſcatters the coagulated Blood, and makes it more fluid to paſs away.

In Sprains of the Limbs, Contractions of the Ligaments, Tendons, by anointing with the Balſam before a Fire, it ſupples and relaxes them to their natural Functions.

Pains in the Joints in the upper and lower Limbs, by the ſame Method, it takes away by a few Applications.

Even in the Gout and Rheumatism it gives immediate Eaſe; but I don't ſay it is an infallible Cure.

N. B. It cures Conſumptions that are not of long ſtanding, if the Patient is within the Age of Forty Years, by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, Morning and Night, drinking half a Pint of warm freſh Broth after each Doſe, during the Term of Forty Days.

☞ It has cured a Number of People in New-York, whoſe Names are affixed to the Directions, and it has alſo cured ſeveral Perſons here of violent Coughs, &c. as alſo many very bad ſore Legs, which were of a long ſtanding.
